DETAILED ACTION

1. This office action is in response to amendment/remarks filed on October 22, 2008.
2. Claims 1-33 have been cancelled.
3. Claims 34-41 are newly added.
4. Claims 34-41 are currently pending.

Election/Restrictions

5. This application contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species:
 - I. Species of the embodiment disclosed in Specification, i.e. Fig. 3, directed to an image processing apparatus, a method of controlling an image processing apparatus, and a computer-readable storage medium storing a computer executable program for controlling an image processing apparatus, inter alia, having "an access control unit" constructed to set a card slot as an accessible card slot which the reading unit can access, wherein, in an initializing state after a power supply is supply is turned on, the access control unit sets a card slot in which a memory card is first inserted as the accessible card slot, sets the card slots other than the accessible card slot as inaccessible, and does not change the setting of the accessible card slot until the power supply is turned off", corresponding to Claims 34, 37 and 40.
 - II. Species of the embodiment disclosed in Specification, i.e. Fig. 7, directed to a recording apparatus, a method of controlling a recording apparatus, and a computer-readable storage medium storing a computer executable program, for controlling a recording apparatus, inter alia, having "a power supply switching circuit constructed to supply power to only one connection unit in which a external memory card is first inserted from among the plural connection units, in response to the respective detection signals after a state in which the external memory card is not inserted in any of the plural connection units, wherein said power is supplied for the external memory card which is first inserted in the one connection unit, corresponding to Claims 35-36, 38-39 and 41-42.

Art Unit: 2625

6. The species are independent or distinct because claims to different species recite the mutually exclusive characteristics of such species, such as the ones discussed and highlighted above. In addition, these species are not obvious variants of each other based on the current record.

7. Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. Currently, no claim is generic.

8. There is an examination and search burden for these patentably distinct species due to their mutually exclusive characteristics. The species require a different field of search (e.g. searching different classes/subclasses or electronic resources, or employing different search queries); and/or the prior art applicable to one species would not likely be applicable to another species; and/or the species are likely to raise different non-prior art issues under 35 U.S.C. 101 and/or 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph.

9. Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

10. The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To reserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

11. Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which depend from or otherwise require all the limitations of an allowable generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

12. Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

13. Should applicant traverse on the ground that the inventions or species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the inventions or species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C.103(a) of the other invention.

14. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).

Response to Arguments

15. In regard to Applicant's remarks on Pg. 3, third paragraph, regarding interpretation of an indefinite article "a" or "an", herein respectfully re-iterate for prosecution record, as once again provided by Applicant with, Baldwin Graphic Systems, Inc. v. Siebert, Inc., Slip Op. 2007-1262, pg. 7, and clearly indicated and re-stated by Applicant that “‘a’ limits the claimed card slot (or card reader) to a single card slot, or to a single card reader, is unsupportable as a matter of law” (third paragraph on Pg. 9 of Applicant's remarks filed on October 22, 2008), Examiner acknowledges such clarifying statement provided by Applicant in such "a" or "an" means "one or more", and will take into consideration of such in future prior art consideration, in such as, "a slot" disclosed, taught and/or suggested by a future prior art could be interpreted as "one or more slot(s)" in accordance with and to be consistent with Applicant's assertions.
